world for our children? 11 Environment Are you willing to buy locally produced foods or locally manufactured products, drive an econoffset carbon credits, and what does it matter if you do or don't? 12 Environment What awareness do we need to live responsibly on Planet Earth? 13 Environment What part of the commons do you care about and how can we restore natural systems, produced the environment, and steward the "global commons"? 14 Governance, Law & Politics What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? 15 Governance, Law & Politics governmental organizations), global forums, governments, political alliances, etc.? 16 Governance, Law & Politics What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade what does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active? 17 Health What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active? 18 Health What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? 19 Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns?	ctured products, drive an eco car, or ?? restore natural systems, protect utions and manage resources to th social movements, NGOs (non- tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? s/inactions do we take to achieve uth and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	4 E duca	ation
world for our children? In Environment Are you willing to buy locally produced foods or locally manufactured products, drive an econoffset carbon credits, and what does it matter if you do or don't? Environment What awareness do we need to live responsibly on Planet Earth? What part of the commons do you care about and how can we restore natural systems, produce the environment, and steward the "global commons"? What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governmental organizations), global forums, governments, political alliances, etc.? What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade it? What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on confiderences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow what are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"?	ctured products, drive an eco car, or ?? ?? restore natural systems, protect utions and manage resources to th social movements, NGOs (non- tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? s/inactions do we take to achieve of the social movements and the social movements and the social movements are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	4.0 Educa	ation	What can we he doing to propers our children for the world, and what are we doing to propers the
Are you willing to buy locally produced foods or locally manufactured products, drive an econoffset carbon credits, and what does it matter if you do or don't? Environment What awareness do we need to live responsibly on Planet Earth? What part of the commons do you care about and how can we restore natural systems, produced achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governmental organizations), global forums, governments, political alliances, etc.? What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade what does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on codifferences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow what are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a g	restore natural systems, protect utions and manage resources to th social movements, NGOs (non- tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? s/inactions do we take to achieve alth and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	10 Educa	ation	What can we be doing to prepare our children for the world, and what are we doing to prepare the world for our children?
offset carbon credits, and what does it matter if you do or don't? Environment What awareness do we need to live responsibly on Planet Earth? What awareness do we need to live responsibly on Planet Earth? What part of the commons do you care about and how can we restore natural systems, protective the environment, and steward the "global commons"? What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governmental organizations), global forums, governments, political alliances, etc.? What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade it? What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to act it? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on or differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a global we acted as a contraction of the gl	restore natural systems, protect utions and manage resources to th social movements, NGOs (non- tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? s/inactions do we take to achieve alth and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	11 Enviro	onment	Are you willing to buy locally produced foods or locally manufactured products, drive an eco car, or
The provision of the commons do you care about and how can we restore natural systems, provided the environment, and steward the "global commons"? What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governmental organizations), global forums, governments, political alliances, etc.? What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade what does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on confiferences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow what are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a global process of the province of the p	restore natural systems, protect utions and manage resources to th social movements, NGOs (non- tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? s/inactions do we take to achieve of the social movements and what are best health of the social movements and what will help us
the environment, and steward the "global commons"? 14 Governance, Law & Politics 15 Governance, Law & Politics 16 Governance, Law & Politics 17 Health What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade it? 18 Health What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? 19 Human Relations Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on or differences play out locally and globally? 19 Human Relations What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted at a sustainable future? What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieves in sustainable future? What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieves in sustainable future? What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieves in sustainable future? What are our personal stereotypes that keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow what are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a global principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieves in the principles of humans from the local to the global we acted a global principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieves and sustainable future? What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, political alliances, etc.? What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, political alliances, etc.? What are the pros and cons or participating or collaborating with social movements, political alliances, etc.?	utions and manage resources to th social movements, NGOs (non- tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? Is/inactions do we take to achieve Ilth and what are best health Ife we all seek and what will help us	12 Enviro	onment	What awareness do we need to live responsibly on Planet Earth?
the environment, and steward the "global commons"? 14 Governance, Law & Politics 15 Governance, Law & Politics What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governmental organizations), global forums, governments, political alliances, etc.? 16 Governance, Law & Politics What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade it? What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on or differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? 20 Human Relations What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a global we acted a global in the properties of the plobal we acted a global in the plobal we acted a	th social movements, NGOs (non-tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? Is/inactions do we take to achieve Ith and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	13 Enviro	onment	What part of the commons do you care about and how can we restore natural systems, protect Governance, Law & Politics What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resource achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? Governance, Law & Politics Governance, Law & Politics What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade it? What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active? Health What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on of differences play out locally and globally? Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a gelations 	th social movements, NGOs (non-tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? Is/inactions do we take to achieve Ith and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us achieve harmonious co-existence and a sustainable future? 15 Governance, Law & Politics 16 Governance, Law & Politics 17 Health 18 Health 19 Human Relations 19 Human Relations 10 Human Relations 11 Human Relations 12 What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on odifferences play out locally and globally? 18 Human Relations 19 Human Relations 10 Human Relations 10 Human Relations 11 Human Relations 12 What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? 19 Human Relations 10 Human Relations 11 Human Relations 12 What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on odifferences play out locally and globally? 19 Human Relations 10 What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? 10 What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a palations with social movements, NGOs governments, political alliances, etc.? 10 What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governments, political alliances, etc.? 10 What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governments, political alliances, etc.? 11 What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, political alliances, etc.? 12 What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, political alliances, etc.? 18 What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, political alliances, etc.? 18 What are the pros and cons of palatics or collaborations, governments, political alliances, etc.? 18 What are the pros and cons of palatics or collaborations, governments, political alliances, etc.? 19 What are the pros and cons of palatics or collaborations, governments, political alliances, etc.? 10 What are the pros and cons of palatics or collaborations, governments, politics allian	tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? Is/inactions do we take to achieve Ith and what are best health Ife we all seek and what will help us	14 Gover		What are our principles for common ground to build new institutions and manage resources to Governance, Law & Politics What are the pros and cons of participating or collaborating with social movements, NGOs governmental organizations), global forums, governments, political alliances, etc.? 16 Governance, Law & Politics What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade it? 17 Health What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active it? 18 Health What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? 19 Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? 20 Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on condifferences play out locally and globally? 21 Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? 22 Human Relations What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a polytics Polyt	tical alliances, etc.? In we express our civic leadership? Is/inactions do we take to achieve Ith and what are best health Ife we all seek and what will help us		& Politics
Law & Politics Governance, Law & Politics What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active it? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on of differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a governments, political alliances, etc.? What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leaders teld. What actions our civic leaders and what ways can we express our civic leaders and what ways can we ex	n we express our civic leadership? s/inactions do we take to achieve lth and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	15 Gover	rnance,
16 Governance, Law & Politics What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leade it? What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active it? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on or differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a government.	n we express our civic leadership? s/inactions do we take to achieve of the and what are best health of the we all seek and what will help us	1131	R. Politics
Health What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to active it? What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on of differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted as	s/inactions do we take to achieve Ilth and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	a a Cover it? 18 Health What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? 19 Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? 20 Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on or differences play out locally and globally? 21 Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? 22 Human Relations What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted as	ilth and what are best health ife we all seek and what will help us	ITUI		What qualities do we need from our leaders, and what ways can we express our civic leadership?
Health What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health practices for a healthier society? Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on of differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted as	ife we all seek and what will help us	17 Health	th	What does it mean to live a more balanced life and what actions/inactions do we take to achieve practices for a healthier society? 19 Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? 20 Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on or differences play out locally and globally? 21 Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted as the second of the global we	ife we all seek and what will help us			it?
Human Relations How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will move through and transcend these patterns? What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on of differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted as	·	18 Health	th	What role does food play in our physical/emotional/mental health and what are best health
Relations Move through and transcend these patterns? What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on of differences play out locally and globally? Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted as	·			practices for a healthier society?
Human Relations What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on of differences play out locally and globally? What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wow What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted as	"2 How door the feeting an arm	19 Huma	an	How does racism, classism, and sexism keep us from living the life we all seek and what will help us
Relations differences play out locally and globally? 21 Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wo What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? 22 Human Relations What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted at the second s	"2 How door the feets are are	Relati	ions	move through and transcend these patterns?
Relations differences play out locally and globally? 21 Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wo What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a	r now does the locus on our	20 Huma	an	What are our personal stereotypes that keep us in "we vs. them"? How does the focus on our
Human Relations What is your response to many global leaders referring to women as the key to a better wo What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? Human Relations What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a			ions
Relations What are the implications for men and their "inner feminine"? Human Relations What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a	en as the key to a better world?	21 Huma	an
22 Human What would happen if at every gathering of humans from the local to the global we acted a	and the key to a petter world:	4 1
Polations	esal to the global we acted as	33 Huma	an cai to the global we acted as	~~
		23	d	Since much of the media focuses on polarization, sound bites, anger, fear, and duality thinking,
25 Since mach of the media rocuses on polarization, sound sites, and additive minimal	ngar faar and duality thinking	23	u
25 Since mach of the media rocuses on polarization, sound sites, and additive minimal	nger, fear, and duality thinking	25		how do we assess and respond to editorials, interviews, news reports, and opinion "journalism"

#	CATEGORY	CONVERSATION WEEK 2011 QUESTIONSChoose up to 10 questions.
24	Media	What's missing from media today? Are there some voices for the good of the whole and what are they saying?
25	Peace, Justice, Conflict & Violence	What applications can be made from "restorative justice" to our current penal system and beyond punishment, what creates a safer world?
26	Peace, Justice, Conflict & Violence	What are the key principles on which a just society thrives, and what injustices move you to take action?
27	Peace, Justice, Conflict & Violence	What could be good about conflict, and how might it contribute to our evolution and to a deeper peace—both inner and outer?
28	Peace, Justice, Conflict & Violence	Why does conflict often lead to violence, and what is contributing to the violence in your community? What can you do to address it?
29	Personal Development	How can you become a good human being and achieve your potential? How might our institutions assist your personal growth and humanity's evolution?
30	Personal Development	How much of our personality (our ideas and who we are as an individual) is defined by the times in which we live? Do we have a deeper identity, and if so, how would you describe it?
31	Philosophy	What advice might the great sages give about our current condition? What is your sage advice?
32	Philosophy	What is the meaning of life?
33	Religion & Spirituality	In what ways does religion unite and divide us? How can we value our diversity and also our oneness in our shared humanity?
34	Science & Technology	How can we utilize the "virtual world" of Facebook, Twitter, texting, WikiLeaks, blogging, emailing, etc. to create the world our hearts yearn for?
35	Science & Technology	What discoveries are providing the greatest potential benefit or destruction of humanity?
36	Spirituality & Religion	How can we support one another in making time and space for personal spiritual development as part of being a balanced person?
37	Spirituality & Religion	How is our worldview influenced and limited by our religious or spiritual beliefs and experiences?
38	Spirituality & Religion	How would our activism be different if we waited for our inner sacred voice to guide us to action?
39	Youth	How can we help children to have self-esteem and a greater respect for each other and their world?
40	Youth	What can we do to address youth violence and suicide?
41	Miscellaneous	How do we connect our voices to be effective for the good of the whole, and why is this important?
42	Miscellaneous	In the documentary, "I Am", the question is: "What's wrong with the world and what can we do about it?"
43	Miscellaneous	The Citgo Gas motto is: "We share a common goal, it's called the common good." How would you describe the common good, and if we shared this goal, how would our world be different?
44	Miscellaneous	What is the most important question to ask for the good of the whole, and what is a corollary internal question we need to ask of ourselves?